

2015 One Book One Town

SHARON READS TOGETHER

Caleb's Crossing by Geraldine Brooks

Writing Contest: CROSSINGS

Deadline: March 4

Write a personal narrative of a CROSSING that you or someone you know has experienced. All ages, child to adult. 500 words maximum. Email to obotcrossings@gmail.com or mail to Crossings Writing Contest, 1267 Bay Road, Sharon. Guidelines at www.onebookonetown.org

Living Literature: A live stage reading from Caleb's Crossing

Monday February 23. 7:00 to 8:30 pm

Haven't read the novel yet? Come to this dramatic reading with Barry Press, Artistic Director; Dave Rabinow & Kelly Seigh. Unitarian Church of Sharon, 4 N. Main Street (no parking in circular driveway). More info at www.onebookonetown.org

Tour of the Indian College exhibit at Harvard's Peabody Museum

Saturday February 28. Noon to 3:00 pm

Who knew that small fragments buried below ground could reveal so much? Co-Sponsored with Sharon Community Education. Advance ticket purchase required. More info at Sharon Community Education 781-784-1574 or at www.sharoncommunityeducation.org or www.onebookonetown.org

Book Discussions

Monday March 2. 1:00 to 2:30 pm with Mikaela Wolfe, SPL Head of Adult & Technology Services. Sharon Public Library, 11 N. Main Street.

Thursday March 12. 7:00 to 8:30 pm

with Ruth Weiner, Educator & Freelance Writer. At Barnes & Noble, Walpole Mall.

Wednesday, March 18. 6:30 to 8:00 pm

with Margret Branschovsky, SPL Information Services. Sharon Public Library, 11 N. Main Street.

People of the First Light, A Storytelling

Saturday March 7, 11:00 am to noon for children and families with Annawon Weeden. Sharon Public Library, 11 N. Main Street. More info at www.onebookonetown.org

"We Still Live Here"

Tuesday March 10, 7:00 to 9:00 pm

A documentary about the revitalization of the Wôpanâak language, followed by discussion with Jennifer Weston, Co-Producer. Sharon Public Library, 11 N. Main Street. More info: www.onebookonetown.org

An Evening with Geraldine Brooks

Thursday, March 19. 7:00 to 9:00 pm

Talk and Book Signing at Sharon High School. Tickets can be purchased on-line at www.onebookonetown.org. For more information on the speaker, contact www.prhspeakers.com.

Photo by Randi Baird

"Tell No More Lies Than Needs Must": Facts of Life in the 1600s

Wednesday March 25. 7:00 to 8:30 pm

with Dwight MacKerron, Stoughton Historical Society. Co-sponsored with the Sharon Historical Society. At Sharon Historical Society, 16 High Street. More info at www.onebookonetown.org or www.sharonhistoricalsociety.org

CROSSINGS Celebratory Reading & Awards

Sunday, March 29. 2:00 to 4:00 pm

We invite winners to read their CROSSINGS narratives. As time allows, other submitters may read their narratives. Sharon Public Library, 11 N. Main Street. More info at www.onebookonetown.org

Poster designed by Carol Abram of Abram Design
www.abramdesign.com

